OECTA AQ Courses: Call for Face-to-Face AQ Instructors

OECTA offers Additional Qualification (AQ) courses across Ontario in face-to-face locations, as well as online during the fall, spring and summer. AQ courses information is available at www.oecta.on.ca under 'Courses'.

OECTA is seeking additional instructors for the 2011-12 sessions for our face-to-face AQ courses, which may include up to 25 hours online, in all subject areas currently listed on our website.

Interested OECTA members are invited to submit their resumé and completed application form, indicating the AQ course(s) they are qualified to teach.

The attached AQ instructor application form is due no later than August 16, 2011

Only successful applicants will be notified by August 30, 2011.

Instructors are remunerated as consultants on a fee-for-service basis for teaching AQ courses.

Criteria for online instructors:

- Active OECTA members
- Extensive experience in teaching AQ courses and in adult education
- Each instructor must have a minimum of a Specialist or equivalent (Masters) in the respective subject area of the AQ course

Email or fax your resumé and completed application form by August 16, 2011 to:
